The City Hall’s famous Tea Dances have been bringing people together for over 85 years. Many of Sheffield’s married couples first met on the illuminated dance floor and the city’s brave wartime Women of Steel, now immortalised as popular as ever, drawing visitors from across South Yorkshire and beyond for a heart-warming and friendly afternoon of ballroom, latin and sequence dance.

Hearing unforgettable voices, since 1932.
Sheffield City Hall’s summer 2019 line-up boasts some of the greatest talent from the worlds of music, comedy and entertainment; you might not be able to guarantee the sunshine but you can count on us to have an unforgettable event for everyone, whatever your taste!

Music fans can look forward to a visit from Stereophonics frontman Kelly Jones as part of only his third ever solo tour, the world-famous Hallé orchestra bringing Sheffield International Concert Season 2018/19 to a dramatic close, an all-day showcase of alternative music for the Tramlines Fringe, opera-pop superstars Il Divo performing their greatest hits and top quality tributes to timeless music from Queen, ELO, Roy Orbison and more.

More highlights include comedy superstar James Acaster’s latest acclaimed tour, intimate speaking appearances from best-selling author Gill Sims and football mavericks Vinnie Jones and Paul Gascoigne, and perfect family treats with In The Night Garden Live and the return of the Hallé as they perform the Magical Music of Harry Potter.

Pre-Show Dining & City Bar
Pre-Show Dining is available on selected performances with one, two or three course meals served in the City Hall’s stunning art deco Ballroom. Look out for the symbol on selected shows. The City Bar is open before every event and during the interval serving draught and bottled beer, drinks and refreshments, and before selected shows hosts pop-up street food from around the world, served fresh by our chef!

James Acaster: COLD LASAGNE HATE MYSELF 1999

Tickets: £20.72
Venue: Oval Hall

A career-defining set from the UK's hottest comedian

One time I bought a lasagne from the supermarket, heated it up in the oven and ate a bit of it and it wasn’t very nice so I put it in the fridge because it felt wrong to dump a whole lasagne in the bin and then later on I ate a spoonful of the cold lasagne because I was drunk and it was absolutely delicious. It was 4am. I then changed the name of a WhatsApp I was a part of to COLD LASAGNE HATE MYSELF 1999 because I had been thinking a lot about how 1999 was the best year of my life and also about how much I hate myself sometimes. The next day I was asked to name my new show. Come along.

Venue: Oval Hall

A theatrical band of brothers

What happens when a company of ex-soldiers becomes a company of actors? A group of veterans and actors rehearse a play about a group of veterans and actors. It is not a cure-all, but the bonding, the humour, the ‘theatre of war’; all help to put them back together again. Although worlds apart, they begin to realise there are more similarities between military life and the theatre than they realised; they build a powerful new world of their own. This is a heart-warming story about dealing with traumatic experiences, and what happens when you leave the military family.

Thursday 25th July | 4pm

An Audience with Sir Michael Morpurgo

Tickets: £11
Concessions: £5.50 (Unwaged, Disabled, Under 18s & Armed Forces)

Venue: Oval Hall

Hear the story of one of the nation’s greatest writers

Michael Morpurgo has written over 130 books, including ‘War Horse’, which has received hugely successful stage and film adaptations. But what about his real life story? How did a boy supremely uninterested in books, dreaming of becoming an army officer, become a bestselling author and Children’s Laureate?

Now celebrating his 75th birthday, join one of the UK’s best-loved authors as he shares his gift for magical storytelling and reveals the secrets nearly 50 years of writing has taught him, in conversation with broadcaster and Paralympian Ade Adepitan.

Never Such Innocence invite young people aged 9-18 from around Sheffield, together with those attending the Invictus UK Trials, to reflect on their family and community’s experience of conflict, now or in the past and the sacrifices made by the Armed Forces and civilians during war. They are running a poetry, song, speech and art competition to encourage young people to respond creatively to these themes. Competition winners will be invited to a special Award Ceremony before the Sir Michael Morpurgo event in the Oval Hall. For more information on the competition visit www.neversuchinnocence.com
Saturday 27th July | 1pm & 4pm

Pip-pip, onk-onk! A magical family adventure

Igglepiggle, Upsy Daisy, Makka Pakka and friends are back in their brand new live show! Join Igglepiggle as he looks for his friends in the Night Garden by following their funny sounds until he finds them all! Beloved characters will be beautifully brought to life with full-size costumes, magical puppets, and enchanting music. The show lasts just under an hour and it’s a completely new production for the very first In the Night Garden Live UK theatre tour.

There are other shows for young children, but as The Independent wrote, “there’s nothing quite like In the Night Garden Live.”

Saturday 31st August | 7.30pm
Jane McDonald

Tickets: £56, £50.40, £44.80, £39.20
Venue: Oval Hall

Jaw-dropping vocals from a national treasure

One of the nation’s best-loved entertainers is back with her phenomenal new live show. The BAFTA award-winning star of ‘Cruising with Jane McDonald’ and ‘Jane & Friends’ always delivers a stunning performance and, along with her fantastic live band, guarantees to bring the audience to their feet with this evening of music and laughter! Following a sell-out tour in 2018, book early to secure your seat for what promises to be another memorable evening.

Tea Dances
Admission: £1.50 Tuesdays and Thursdays, £3.50 Saturdays
Please check www.sheffieldcityhall.co.uk or call the Box Office on 0114 2 789 789 for monthly dates.

The City Hall’s famous Tea Dances have been bringing people together for over 85 years. Many of Sheffield’s married couples first met on the illuminated dance floor and the city’s brave wartime Women of Steel, now immortalised by the statue outside the building, could often be found quickstepping and waltzing around the art deco Ballroom. The tea dances remain as popular as ever, drawing visitors from across South Yorkshire and beyond for a heart-warming and friendly afternoon of ballroom, latin and sequence dance.

Hearing unforgettable voices, since 1932.

Payment and Booking Fees
You can buy your tickets with cash, credit or debit card. The prices displayed in this guide include a 12% booking fee and facility fee.

This 12% booking fee applies to tickets for events at Sheffield City Hall purchased online, via telephone or in person.

The facility fee is a small charge that contributes to the upkeep, safety and security of the building to ensure that you enjoy your visit. Depending on your chosen delivery method, there may be an additional fulfilment fee, covering the cost of getting the tickets to you, including postage costs or organising collection facilities. There is always a print at home option available on the delivery method which is free of charge.
